

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

of the

Illinois-Iowa Section of the American Chemical Society

We, the undersigned, acting in our capacity as the Executive Committee of the Illinois-Iowa Section of the American Chemical Society, adopt the following Articles of Association of this unincorporated association, first formally organized on July 20, 1923, pursuant to authority granted by the American Chemical Society.

ARTICLE I

The name of the unincorporated Association is the "Illinois-Iowa Section of the American Chemical Society."

ARTICLE II

The period of duration of the Association is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purposes for which the Association was formed and continues to operate are exclusively charitable, educational, and scientific, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), including, but not limited to, encouraging in the broadest and most liberal manner the advancement of chemistry in all its branches within the States of Illinois and Iowa.

ARTICLE IV

The Association shall have one or more classes of members with such designations, qualifications and rights as set forth in the Bylaws. A debt, obligation, or other liability of the Association, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise shall be solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the Association and shall not become the debt, obligation, or other liability of a member of the Association solely by reason of the member acting as a member of the Association.

ARTICLE V

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a board of directors, which may be referred to as the Executive Committee. The board of directors shall consist of such directors as may be elected or appointed as provided for in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI

Except as provided in these Articles of Association, the internal affairs of the Association shall be regulated and determined as provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII

In all events and under all circumstances, and notwithstanding merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution, or winding up of the Association, voluntary or involuntary, or by operation of law, or upon amendment of the Articles of Association, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the Association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Association shall be authorized to and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Association's tax-exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Association shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Association shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publishing or distribution statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Association, the Association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an organization, contributions which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

- (b) If, in any one year, the Association is determined to be a private foundation, then, in that event, its income for each such taxable year shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the so-determined foundation to taxation under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the foundation shall not engage in self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code) and the foundation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the foundation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, and shall not make any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4954 of the Internal Revenue Code).

ARTICLE VIII

Upon the dissolution of the Association, the Association shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Association, dispose of all of the assets of the Association exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes as specifically set forth in the Bylaws, provided that such disposition shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Association shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine are organized and operated expressly for such purposes.

ARTICLE IX
